50+ Fandom Programs
Planning Festivals and Events for Tweens, Teens, and Adults
AMY J. ALESSIO, KATIE LAMANTIÀ, AND EMILY VINCI

This book of ready-to-go programs and events will help public libraries give fans who are passionate about genres, characters, games, and book series plenty of reasons to return to the library again and again.

Academic Library Management
Case Studies
EDITED BY TAMMY NICKELSON DEARIE, MICHAEL METH, AND ELAINE L. WESTBROOKS

What does successful academic library management look like in the real world? A team of editors, all administrators at large research libraries, here present a selection of case studies which dive deeply into the subject to answer that question.

A Basic Music Library
COMPILLED BY THE MUSIC LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Intended to offer suggestions for anyone, regardless of musical training or experience, who is seeking to develop music collections in libraries of all kinds, this essential reference work remains a benchmark of its kind.

Creating A Local History Archive At Your Public Library
FAYE PHILLIPS

Archival collections at public libraries present their own challenges distinct from other library materials, but they also offer the promise of unique connections between the library and its users, particularly when the archives relate to local history.

The Collection All Around
Sharing Our Cities, Towns, and Natural Places
JEFFREY T. DAVIS

Public libraries’ mission, skills, and position in their communities make them ideal facilitators of public access to local resources. In other words, the collection is all around.

Creating and Sharing Online Library Instruction
A How-To-Do-It Manual for Librarians
JOELLE PITTS, SARA K. KEARNS, AND HEATHER COLLINS

Designed to be reused and shared, learning objects are digital content and assessments centered on student learning outcomes. The promise of sharing online instruction across libraries, campuses, or a consortium holds time-saving appeal.

Creating Literacy-Based Programs for Children
Lesson Plans and Printable Resources for K–5
R. Lyn Baker
The all-in-one resource you've been clamoring for, this book presents a comprehensive package of literacy-based public library programming ideas designed for children and kindergartners through the early tweens.

Fundamentals of Library Supervision
Third Edition
Beth McNeil
Mentor, creator, monitor, and negotiator are some of the roles a supervisor must play, and wearing that many hats is a challenge that requires organization (and a healthy sense of humor). This newly updated and revised text will give you the grounding to supervise, manage, and lead with confidence.

Getting Started in Service Design
A How-To-Do-It Manual for Librarians
Joe J. Marquez and Annie Downey
Because service design prioritizes users and their overall experience, it's a valuable framework that administrators and library staff can use as a group to assess, revise, and create library services, spaces, and workflows. Using an action-oriented assortment of exercises, templates, and tools to make service design more accessible.

Marketing Your Library's Electronic Resources
A How-To-Do-It Manual for Librarians, Second Edition
Marie R. Kennedy and Cheryl LaGuardia
When front line librarians improve awareness of under-utilized resources, thereby increasing demand for more of the same, it can also encourage increased funding for the library. The authors' evidence-based approach to promoting electronic resources effectively made the previous edition of this guide a bestseller.

Finding the Answers to Legal Questions
Second Edition
Virginia M. Tucker and Marc Lampson
Newly revised and updated, this timely, clearly organized, and easy-to-use resource is packed with guidance to help librarians answer questions that span the gamut of the law.

WORKSHOPS AND FACILITATED eCOURSES

Two affordable options for learning and professional development from the convenience of your desktop!

> WORKSHOPS are small-group webinars led by recognized experts, offering you the chance to get authoritative answers to your questions while interacting with colleagues who have similar concerns. Related readings also enhance your learning and support-focused discussion chat.

> FACILITATED eCOURSES are asynchronous online courses, offering readings and/or media files, instructor-led discussions, and weekly assignments or activities. The instructors are experts in their content area as well as in leading interactive online learning. All interactions take place on the eCourse website, available 24/7. A certificate of completion is available to participants after the course.
