20 Illustrated books not to miss

Caldecott Award and Honor Books
ABOUT THE CALDECOTT MEDAL

The Caldecott Medal is awarded annually to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children. It was named for nineteenth-century English illustrator Randolph Caldecott and is awarded by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association.

The intended audience and appeal of Caldecott Medal and Honor Books, and picture books in general, vary by individual title. Caldecott books may be geared toward children anywhere along the age spectrum of birth to 14 years. Picture books are not always for the youngest readers.

ABOUT ALSC

The Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC) is the world’s largest organization dedicated to the support and enhancement of library service to children from birth to age 14. For more information, visit ALSC at www.ala.org/alsc.