A STRONG FUTURE FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY USE AND EMPLOYMENT

The latest and most comprehensive assessment of public librarians' education and career paths to date, this important volume reports on a large-scale research project performed by authors JOSÉ-MARIE GRIFFITHS and DONALD W. KING. Presented in collaboration with the Office for Research and Statistics (ORS), the book includes an examination of trends in public library employment, such as

- Staff structure and educational level of staff
- Outsourcing of library functions
- Quality-of-life and quality-of-service assessment

This book serves as a crucial guide to public library administrators as they plan for staffing in years to come.
